

INDICT O'BANION, LIEUT. M. GRADY IN RUM SCANDAL

U. S. Grand Jury Acts on Sibley Case.

 Mike Grady, spectacular young lieutenant of detectives, his bureau squad, Dean O'Bannon, a group of alleged bootleggers slightly less noted than O'Bannon, and officials of three big Chicago warehouses, were indicted by the federal grand jury yesterday in connection with the $1,000,000 Sibley case.

The jury also submitted a report to Federal Judge Carpenter. The report was said to contain recommendations that a high prohibition officer, a well known official of the local department of internal revenue and a prohibition agent be discharged from the government service on charges of suppression of evidence in the Sibley investigation.

Those Named in True Bills.
 Those indicted with Grady and O'Bannon are:
 Detective Sergeants CHARLES KING, JOHN GIBBONS, WILLIAM SMITH, and THOMAS MARTIN, all members of Grady's squad.
 SACKETT H. VERRALL, president and treasurer of the Sibley Warehouse and Storage company.
 GEORGE W. CARPENTER, secretary, and LAVANT MORRELL, traffic manager, of the Sibley Warehouse and Storage company.
 WALTER and SHERIDAN CLIN, brothers of Col. John V. Clin, former first assistant United States district attorney.

ABE MENDOZA, alleged bootlegger, and ARNOLD LEVINE, a whiskey broker, Harder's Warehouse and Storage Company and ROBERT MALLIN, QUINN.

THOMAS DE COURSEY, an alleged bootlegger, said to have been in command of Grady and his men during the Sibley case.
 P. DAVID PINKUSCH, described as the "airplane bootlegger," a reputed "whiskey cutter," under indictment on another case.

CARL DILLON CARLSON, pal of Pinkuschn, also reputed to be pal of making one of the "sleazy" distilled water and a little caramel.
 MATTHEW QUAIL, shoekeeper.
 FREDERICK A. MAYER, LAWRENCE MAYER, and GEORGE MAYER, owners of Mayer Bros. warehouse.

WILLIAM WALTER, EMIL VINCENT, one "GOKELO," MARTIN STRUG, and EDWARD F. O'BRIEN, Judge Carpenter immediately sent the true bills to the district clerk for filing, but suppressed the report on the ground that it was "unfair" to the officials named, because it alleged them to be "whiskey cutters." The district clerk said that if the grand jury possessed evidence sufficient to warrant making public the report, they should have indicted the officials named, thus giving them an opportunity to defend themselves in court.

The alleged illicit removals extended over the period between December 15, 1923, to March 15, 1924, when the plot was discovered by Chief Madden, according to statements in the bill.

Bench warrants were issued for the defendants. It was said, however, that all would be given several days in which to surrender before deputy marshals are sent out after them. Bonds were fixed at $5,000 each.

Charges Grady Moved Boats.
 Lieut. Grady and his four subordinates were indicted on charges that they conspired with the contraband whiskey from the Sibley concentration depot to "distribution points" selected by the alleged bootleggers.

It is said that the lieutenant and his men used one of the big bureau autos in cooperating with O'Bannon and others, without even taking the trouble to disguise or dim the license plates on their conspicuous vehicle.

When advised that Grady and the squad had been accused, Chief Collins said the detectives would be pulled off the Franks case and suspended the moment he received official notification of the indictments.

"Good Police Work," Grady.
 Lieut. Grady attributed his indictment to enemies whom, he said, he told his squad "had made through 'good police work.'"
 "I am innocent of all these charges," Grady said. "And every member of my squad is innocent. We will prove this innocence when the case comes to do so and it can't come too fast for us. Until then there is nothing further we can say. We know we've done good police work and a policeman can't do that without making enemies."

WRITINGS HELD HERETICAL

BISHOP WILLIAM M. BROWN.

ing enemies. Our indictment was the work of these enemies.

Silent as to Details.
 The indictments cite eleven overt acts, but withhold details of the manner in which 5,000 cases of good booze were removed from the Sibley warehouse.

Following the return of the bills, United States District Attorney Edwin A. Olson issued a formal statement.

"The evidence discloses a bold and daring plot to withdraw thousands of gallons of distilled spirits out of a bonded warehouse, on forged government permits."

"Not only were the permits forged, but the letters purporting to come out of various offices were forged."

"Whiskey was shipped to various warehouses in the city under guard of police officers and sold to bootleggers throughout the entire state."

"We propose to push the prosecution of this case."

First of the "over acts" listed refers to the payment to the internal revenue department of a check for $1,000 signed by the Sibley company through Verrall. This was said to be tax on the fraudulently withdrawn liquor.

The second overt act was the alleged removal from the Chicago post office of seven registered letters addressed to the prohibition director of New York.

Called Nucleus of Plot.
 This move is said to have formed the nucleus for the entire plot. According to government regulations, designed to forestall removals under warehouse, when they received liquor permits, they were through registered mail, to the issuing prohibition office, asking for verification of the permit.

Before liquor can be released the verification must be received, also by registered mail.

Seven of the permits used in the Sibley removal were supposed to have been issued by the New York prohibition office. Records of the prohibition office are said to have shown the registered letter receipts, and verification letters from New York.

The letters for which the receipts were kept are alleged to have been the seven withdrawn. The verification letters have been proved forgeries, probably executed by the same hand that forged the permits, it is said.

The allegations show that O'Bannon was the largest individual purchaser of liquor from the contraband O'Bannon, the indictment charges, bought 500 cases of Laneater bourbon for $45,000.

The indictments resulted from a six months' investigation made by Special Agent in Charge A. F. Madden of the intelligence unit, and Agents Patrick Roche and C. W. Converse. The indictments were prepared by Assistant District Attorney John E. Byrne and presented to the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Edwin L. Wald.

BANKER DENIES LOVE LED GIRL TO SHOOT SELF

Sought Him for Advice Only, He Says.

 It was in the role of banker and father-confessor to Lauretta Thompson Alberts that he had acted, and not as a swimmer, Victor Hasterlik, vice president of the Indianapolis State bank, declared last night. And it was as her banker and the man who knew most about her troublesome personal affairs that the pretty school teacher appealed to him Wednesday afternoon, prior to her attempted suicide, the young banker explained last night.

Mrs. Hasterlik fell ill from the nervous shock she suffered on learning of her husband's connection with the attempt to be made by Mrs. Alberts, and had little to say. "My opinions on the affair are the same as Mr. Hasterlik's," he explained. "His explanations are entirely satisfactory."

Mr. Hasterlik was in almost as nervous a state as his wife.

Told of Marriage.
 "It's enough to wreck a fellow," he said. "Mrs. Thompson, as I knew her until Wednesday, when she told me of her secret marriage a year and a half ago to Albert Alberts, a New York salesman, had borrowed money of me a few months ago. She formed a habit of coming to me for advice and of telling me about the unhappiness of her home life."

Then Wednesday she called me. She said she was depressed and ill, and that she had spent the day in Columbus Park. She asked that I drive by on my way home and talk with her. Having left my car at home Wednesday, I went in a taxicab.

Suddenly Shoots Self.
 "I found her in a high state of nervous tension, and she had talked with me only a few minutes when she suddenly shot herself. I was stunned."

"There has never been a love affair between us. She is a nice girl, and I have made other statements she must have been delirious and that's all there is to it," Mr. Hasterlik said.

Mrs. Hasterlik was last night inclined to take the same view of her daughter's attempted suicide. Mrs. Alberts, while very ill last night at Robert Burns hospital, was reported improving, and her husband, Albert Alberts, to whom her marriage until Wednesday was not known, is on his way from New York City and is expected today.

JUDGE DENIES LEITER RIGHT TO PRESS SUIT

Joseph Leiter, whose tilted relatives have been in the control of the millions left by his father, Levi Z. Leiter, yesterday was restrained by Superior Judge Denis E. Sullivan from prosecuting a suit he filed nearly a year ago in Washington, D. C.

Leiter's suit sought a construction of his father's will to determine whether he was required to pay to the heirs, including Lady Hyde and Lord Curzon's three children, the interest earned on leased coal lands belonging to the estate.

The suit followed one filed several months previous before Judge Sullivan, in which Leiter's sister, Lady Marquise Curzon, former British foreign secretary, had accused the Chicago millionaire of mismanaging the affairs of the estate, and asked his removal as a trustee.

Judge Sullivan, after hearing extended arguments, ruled that Leiter's suit would result in a clash of jurisdiction between the two courts.

She Speeded Twice

MISS ABBY ROCKEFELLER.
 (Pacific and Atlantic Photo.)

New York, May 29.—[Special.]—Patrolman Edward R. Fleming, of motorcycle squad No. 1, who served a summons on Miss Abby Rockefeller, 29 year old daughter of John D. Rockefeller Jr., on May 13, for speeding, testified today that Magistrate Norman J. Marsh, in traffic court, had ordered changing the official records so that a previous conviction against her, for speeding, would not show.

Fleming was one of several witnesses to appear today before David Hirschfeld, commissioner of accounts, in his investigation of the magistrate's action in the case of Miss Rockefeller.

The policeman asserted that a court attendant had informed him it was "by Magistrate Marsh's order" that suspended sentence noted upon the records of the first case, be changed to "dismissed."

Testimony also showed that on neither occasion did Miss Rockefeller appear in person in court, but was represented by counsel.

Commissioner Hirschfeld adjourned the hearing sine die. He said he probably would not call Miss Rockefeller.

5 SCHOOL BOYS IN DEATH PACT; ONE ENDS HIS LIFE

Pontiac, Mich., May 29.—[Special.]—A suicide pact among five prominent high school boys, humiliated by a teacher's reprimand, started the city today.

Three of the boys backed down, another attempted his life, while the fifth, Joseph Muse, 16, carried through his resolve, dying a few minutes after he had swallowed poison.

School authorities will not discuss the pact at all. The shock of Muse's death has frightened and silenced every one. That five boys, intelligent and carefree, should solemnly swear to snuff out their lives upon temporarily at least the elaborate preparations the school is making for graduation exercises next month, and is a mystery to every one.

"You'll find Joe dead, mother," young Hale told her. "He won't be afraid. He will enjoy such a thing."

TINNEY POSTS FORFEIT AFTER IMOGENE BOUT

Court Is Stakeholder; Hearing Tomorrow.

New York, May 29.—[Special.]—Frank Tinney, noted comedian, lost his sense of humor as he stood before Magistrate Goodman in west side court today to answer a complaint of Imogene Wilson, the "loveliest girl" of the "Polka" chorus, that he had feloniously assaulted her, beaten her and kicked her at her apartment Tuesday night.

Shortly before his arraignment Tinney had told detectives that Miss Wilson wouldn't go through with the complaint and that there "wasn't anything to it." But he stood before the "Polka" chorus, that he had feloniously assaulted her, beaten her and kicked her at her apartment Tuesday night.

"This is a serious matter," said Magistrate Goodman. "I think you had better not say anything now. I hold you in $2,500 bail and set the hearing for Saturday."

Miss Wilson Confined to Bed.
 Battling Tinney's latest victim wasn't able to be present, so the case was put over for a hearing in court, at which time Imogene has been advised to bring her wounds into court for display.

Detective Elmer Tinney said Miss Wilson was confined to bed under the care of Dr. Adler at her hotel, and a trained nurse. He said she was badly bruised and had contusions on the body and head, besides possible internal injuries from a kick in the abdomen.

Tinney had been taken into custody early today at his country home, Ocean Park, at Baldwin, L. I., by Nassau county officials.

Court Lays a "First Night."
 He entered the courtroom through the prisoners' room. He wore a brown suit, a tan colored shirt with tie to match, and had a blue raincoat thrown over his arm. He carried his scowl in his hand.

The courtroom presented a scene similar to a first night. Tinney's friends and admirers, who were there in force, so was one of the most denouncing lawyers that ever expressed a bad opinion of the famous comedian's love making tactics.

Attorney Broderick asked an adjournment of the case until Monday. "Information has come to me," he said, "that the comedian is booking himself Saturday for a trip to Europe. I ask high bail. The nature of the contusions and injuries my client received are not yet known."

Tinney scorned the services of a lawyer. Any time, he said, he couldn't talk for himself he'd take up a new trade. But he didn't have to do much talking, once he spoke out of turn.

Addressing Broderick the judge asked if Tinney were married. "Very much," shouted the comedian in a loud voice, and every one laughed except Mrs. Tinney.

Bail was then fixed. Mrs. Tinney was in one of the front rows of court benches. She said she "felt sorry for the poor girl" who "believed all the lies he told her."

Tinney reiterated his belief that Miss Wilson would not appear against him.

$1.50 AN HOUR NEW SCALE FOR BRICKLAYERS

Others May Get the Same Basic Rate.

Taking the initiative in establishing a new wage rate for basic building trades, the Associated Builders yesterday granted the demands of the bricklayers' union for $1.50 an hour beginning June 1.

Negotiations between the builders and officials of the bricklayers' union have been in progress for several months. The existing union agreement, which specifies a minimum rate of $1.25 an hour, expires on May 31.

Expected Early Contract.
 In granting the wage raise Fred Bulley, manager of the Associated Builders, asserted that while no agreement has been signed, one is expected to be signed next week. He said the increase doesn't affect prospective building owners, as the bricklayers, in fact, have been getting the $1.50 an hour rate and higher since the building boom started. He said the acute shortage of bricklayers has forced contractors to pay them more than the specified rate.

Bricklayers and plasterers were selected early in the spring by other basic trades to set the wage pace. All the other trades announced they were willing to retain the existing $1.25 an hour scale. In their agreement, however, were clauses calling for a rate equal to that granted to the highest paid trade. The bricklayers noted the progress made by the plasterers and remained in the background until the former trade signed a wage agreement.

Plasterers' Pact in Doubt.
 The plasterers' negotiations ended abruptly, and neither the union nor Bud Reilly's Employing Plasterers' association affirms or denies that a $1.50 an hour wage pact had been signed. This left the bricklayers and other basic trades in a quandary until yesterday, when the former succeeded in obtaining the $1.50 an hour agreement. The bricklayers' settlement now clears the path for the electricians, steamfitters, roofers, lathers, and from workers to demand similar agreements. It is said that bonuses paid to get men in the various trades have made the scale generally higher than the $1.25 in the contracts.

Carpenters Again at Peace.
 Harmony was reestablished last night between the six ousted carpenters' locals and the Carpenters' District council. The differences were ironed out at a special meeting at 180 West Washington street. Last week Harry Jensen, president, ousted the locals for not contributing the share of assessment toward a new building fund.

RUSSIA AGREES TO PAY ENGLAND PRE-WAR DEBTS

Private Obligations Are Included.

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, May 29.—The next plenary session of the Anglo-Russian conference is fixed tentatively for Wednesday. Meanwhile the British are preparing certain proposed clauses for the treaty which, it is hoped, will be discussed and adopted there.

In the last few days great progress has been made toward an agreement. The Russians are ready to agree to recognition of the pre-war state debts on condition that they are not asked to begin payment for twenty years. The British are said to be willing to accept this and to forgive war debts on the ground that the Russians suffered more from the war than any of the other allies.

To Pay Private Debts.

A practical agreement also has been reached on the matter of private debts. Russia is ready to make preliminary payment on all these as soon as a loan is arranged, leaving the exact determination of the amounts until later.

It also is stated that a powerful syndicate of British and French bankers has been formed for the purpose of financing the loan, which, it now seems fairly certain, will be made.

Rejoice to King's Letter.

The safety of nations is added to by an announcement that four members of the soviet delegation in London have been commanded to the next leave in St. James palace on Monday as guests. The bolsheviks so honored are M. Rakovsky, chargé d'affaires; M. Berlin, consul; Magister, first secretary, and M. Behrens, naval attaché.

Since the invitation arrived there has been an excited discussion at the soviet headquarters about the costumes to be worn. The soviets have not yet prescribed a court dress, and the weight of opinion seems to be in favor of ordinary evening dress, although some of the members of the delegation are holding out for velvet knee pants and st. warts.

Reds Restrict Concessions.

MOSCOW, May 29.—American seeking concessions in soviet Russia will derive little encouragement from the declarations of M. Zinoviev before the communist party convention yesterday. The chairman of the communist international told the delegates that out of 101 applications for concessions made by Americans up to April 1 only ten were granted.

Russia Forewarns Propaganda.

BERLIN, May 29.—Germany and Russia are friends again, Russia having promised not to use the building of its trade commission as headquarters for propaganda and Germany promising to consider the extraterritoriality of the trade commission in negotiations for the Russo-German trade agreement.

M. Rosenblatt, the communist who caused the Russo-German incident by fleeing into the building of the Russian trade commission for protection and organizing the uproar against the police, will be dismissed and detained officially by the bolshevik and in return Herr Weiss of the German police, who organized the raid on the trade commission, will be ousted.

METHODISTS VOTE UPHOLDS DRASTIC RULES ON DIVORCE

Springfield, Mass., May 29.—A proposal for a drastic change in the divorce law of the Methodist Episcopal church was defeated by ten votes at the closing session of the general conference. The vote was 300 for adoption to 110 against.

The present law forbids ministers to marry a divorced person when the husband or wife is living unless that person be the innocent party in a divorce for adultery.

The change would have legalized all marriages except those of guilty parties in divorces for adultery.

The proposed change also forbade ministers to marry "any person known to be physically, mentally or morally unfit."

The present law can't be enforced, the Rev. G. Bromley Oxnam of Los Angeles declared, "and thousands of persons divorced for reasons other than adultery now are living in adultery and are subject to trial."

"A woman who secures a divorce from a brutal husband and wants a new home for her children must be refused God's blessing," the Rev. Wallace H. Finch of Stamford, Conn., asserted that "pastors are in a most peculiar position under the present law."

DECODING JAP PROTEST

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—The formal protest of the Japanese government against the exclusion features of the immigration bill will not be presented to the state department before Saturday, and may even go over to Monday, it was learned officially tonight.

The full text of the protest, which is understood to be approximately 1,000 words in length, has been received at the Japanese embassy, but the work of decoding was not completed in time to present it to Secretary Hughes today. Tomorrow is a holiday and no appointment with the secretary of state will be made unless something unexpected develops.

Tokio Opposes Delay.

It may be stated, however, that no unnecessary delay will be permitted, as it is the wish of the Japanese government to have the protest presented as soon as possible.

Japanese embassy officials declined to discuss the message, though there was a tendency to deprecate some of the press dispatches from Tokyo concerning its probable severity.

State department officials likewise declined to discuss the situation in the absence of the text.

May Not Give Out Text.

It is understood that whether the text of the protest will be made public by the state department upon receipt depends entirely on the wishes of the Japanese government. Best information indicates that Tokyo is doing everything in its power to prevent radical expressions of public opinion in Japan concerning the exclusion act, and that the government is discouraging any suggestions of boycott or embargo.

BAPTISTS TEST "DOCTRINES" IN MISSION FIELD

Appoint a Committee to Investigate.

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.
Milwaukee, Wis., May 29.—[Special.]—After a long and heated debate, participated in by many of the leaders of the Baptist northern convention in session here in the Municipal auditorium, it was decided, by a vote of 766 to 615, to appoint a committee of seven to investigate the doctrinal soundness of the foreign missionaries and the methods of the board of foreign missions in appointing foreign missionaries.

The sum of $25,000 was voted to carry on the investigation.

The committee was instructed to make a report in writing thirty days before the next meeting of the northern convention, a year hence. In the convention it also expressed its intention, pending the investigation, to support the regular boards of the church and not divert funds to other channels, as is now being done.

RAIL OFFICIAL ELECTED CHIEF OF ROTARY CLUB

Alex. Carlton Johnson, Vice President of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, Chosen.

The chief fundamentalist leaders of the convention led in the demand. Two motions were introduced, one which carried, by Dr. J. C. Massie, of Boston, and the other by Dr. John R. Straton of New York City. Dr. W. B. Riley of Minneapolis supported the investigation. Other leaders who spoke were Dr. J. M. Dean, Dr. Frederick L. Anderson of the foreign board, and Judge F. W. Freeman of Denver, Mass.

Some speakers declared the investigation would do no good and that the same divided opinions would prevail after the investigation.

Dr. Massie's resolution directed the board to open all their books, accounts, and records to the committee. The chief difference between Dr. Massie and Dr. Straton's motion consisted in the selection of the committee of investigation. Dr. Straton's resolution specifically named prominent fundamentalists.

Seek Neutral Committee.

"We believe this investigation," said Dr. Straton, whose public debate in New York with the Rev. Charles F. Butler recently attracted wide attention, "will bring out the real truth that is at present disturbing and distracting our church."

"We are not enemies but friends of the missionary cause and what we are asking is for concisence sake. We must support those who preach New Testament religion and Baptist standards according to the historic faith."

The Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher of Los Angeles expressed the opinion that none of the leaders who had taken sides should be on the committee.

"Eighty-five per cent of the church is satisfied," he said, "and we ought not to yield to the few who are disgracing."

Dr. E. A. Hanley, Berkeley, Calif., declared this call for an investigation was "as pathos as some of the investigations carried on by the United States senate."

"This investigation may mean gifts of $1,000,000 or more," said Dr. John Marvin Dean, formerly a pastor in Chicago. "It will be a cheap bargain if by spending $25,000 you can shut my mouth and the mouths of others."

PRISONERS

PERKIN, May 29.—[United Press.]—A relief party, including Americans, proceeding from Wuchow to Kweilin to learn the fate of the members of the Jaffray group of missionaries reported killed in recent fighting, fell into the hands of bandits and all the would-be rescuers were captured, according to a report from the consulate at Canton to the American legation here today.

The captives include Rex P. Ray, a Baptist of Richmond, Va., and H. Z. Miller of New York.

Vice Consul Chamberlain is proceeding from Canton to assist in obtaining their release. The capture occurred near Tak-Wang, in the Kwangsi district. Two unnamed Britishers also were captured.

CLAN'S $100,000 PUT MAYFIELD IN, EX-CYCLOPS SAYS

Lanky Carolinian Gives Defense a Shock.

BY DONALD EWING.
Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—Testimony that the Ku Klux Klan spent between $50,000 and $100,000 in Texas that Earl B. Mayfield might carry its banner to the United States senate, was brought out as a sensational windup to today's hearing before the elections committee, which is investigating the Klan's right to its seat.

It was the first statement from the witness stand in any way confirming the charge that "enormous sums" were spent to elect Mayfield, but it became, at the end, more of a hearing than anything else, and its sponsor was shrouded with mystery as he left the stand.

F. W. Littlejohn, lanky ex-kan official from the hills of North Carolina, was the witness. Having stated his name in response to questions of Prosecution Attorney Nickels, he was asked: "State whether, in the summer of 1923, you attended a meeting of kan officials in Charlotte, Va., who was there, and what was said as to the senatorial election in Texas?"

How He Found Out.

"I attended the dinner as kan cyclops with Dr. W. H. Evans, now imperial wizard of the kan, J. A. Bracwell, and a Dr. Thompson, and the Texas election was fully discussed," replied the witness. "Dr. Evans told us the kan had spent between $50,000 and $100,000 in Texas to elect Earl B. Mayfield to the United States senate."

"That is all," said Nickels.

No one had expected the testimony, the defense was not prepared, and it was several minutes before it began cross-examination.

Then came a series of questions—Wasn't Mr. Littlejohn working for E. Y. Clarke, banished wizard, charged with numerous offenses, such as white slavery? Wasn't he employed by Gov. Parker of Louisiana to attack the Klan? Wasn't he a witness in suits against the Klan? Hadn't he been fired by Dr. Evans at the time of the conference to hold in Texas effort to obtain supremacy in the order?

Denies All Charges.

To all he answered an emphatic "no."

Finally, however, all came out—Littlejohn is traveling over the country at his own expense, he said, investigating the Klan.

"There are groups in the Klan called 'hundreds of dollars,'" he said, "I want to find out about it and clean them out."

But later he admitted that perhaps he'd rather tell his information to clean the Klan just for the pleasure in it.

RING IN BUREAU NEGLECTS VETS, IS ODDIE'S CHARGE

Cites Cases; Coolidge Mised, He Says.

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Resuming in the senate today his attack on the administration of the veterans' bureau, Senator Oddie (Rep., Nev.) declared he was prepared to furnish evidence of the control of that organization by a "ring" which prevented adequate care of former soldiers.

"The present director is hampered by the continued authority of those in the ring," he said, "and those officials are backed by influential individuals who probably do not know the situation which now exists."

Information from "Ring."

President Coolidge gets his information on the subject from the director, the Nevada senator said, "who gets his from the ring."

"The best law will place a new burden on this same bureau which has failed utterly in its great work," he told the senate, and a reorganization should be made immediately.

Senator Oddie said complaining veterans have been punished "by being declared insane," and employees who protested "have been thrown into the street."

"If the director does not want to stand convicted of gross incompetence," Senator Oddie concluded, "he will move at once to reorganize the bureau from top to bottom. If he does not, he should be removed from office forthwith."

Terror at Hospitals.

Senator Dill (Dem., Wash.) said a reign of terror was sweeping some western hospitals because of a treatment involving spinal punctures.

"They believe it leads to paralysis," he said, "and in more than a few cases the patients have become paralyzed. The doctors say that condition would be relieved by the use of a treatment, but the boys are in mortal terror of it."

CONGRESS HOTEL PROMOTES BURKE AND FLORENTINE

Frank Florentine yesterday took over new and more important duties in the Congress hotel, where he made a start years ago as an assistant to the room clerk. "P. F." as he has been familiarly known through that period to the general staff, the resident guests, and the visiting "regulars," became General Manager Florentine, succeeding John Burke.

Mr. Burke, too, took another step up the ladder, becoming vice president and drawing up a new charter to the right of H. L. Kaufman, executive head of the Congress Hotel company.

The new general manager has ascended grade by grade from his original behind the desk position, and in it it has won a nation-wide reputation among hotelmen.

CLAN'S $100,000 PUT MAYFIELD IN, EX-CYCLOPS SAYS

Lanky Carolinian Gives Defense a Shock.

BY DONALD EWING.
Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—Testimony that the Ku Klux Klan spent between $50,000 and $100,000 in Texas that Earl B. Mayfield might carry its banner to the United States senate, was brought out as a sensational windup to today's hearing before the elections committee, which is investigating the Klan's right to its seat.

It was the first statement from the witness stand in any way confirming the charge that "enormous sums" were spent to elect Mayfield, but it became, at the end, more of a hearing than anything else, and its sponsor was shrouded with mystery as he left the stand.

F. W. Littlejohn, lanky ex-kan official from the hills of North Carolina, was the witness. Having stated his name in response to questions of Prosecution Attorney Nickels, he was asked: "State whether, in the summer of 1923, you attended a meeting of kan officials in Charlotte, Va., who was there, and what was said as to the senatorial election in Texas?"

How He Found Out.

"I attended the dinner as kan cyclops with Dr. W. H. Evans, now imperial wizard of the kan, J. A. Bracwell, and a Dr. Thompson, and the Texas election was fully discussed," replied the witness.

"Dr. Evans told us the kan had spent between $50,000 and $100,000 in Texas to elect Earl B. Mayfield to the United States senate."

"That is all," said Nickels.

No one had expected the testimony, the defense was not prepared, and it was several minutes before it began cross-examination.

Then came a series of questions—Wasn't Mr. Littlejohn working for E. Y. Clarke, banished wizard, charged with numerous offenses, such as white slavery? Wasn't he employed by Gov. Parker of Louisiana to attack the Klan? Wasn't he a witness in suits against the Klan? Hadn't he been fired by Dr. Evans at the time of the conference to hold in Texas effort to obtain supremacy in the order?

Denies All Charges.

To all he answered an emphatic "no."

Finally, however, all came out—Littlejohn is traveling over the country at his own expense, he said, investigating the Klan.

"There are groups in the Klan called 'hundreds of dollars,'" he said, "I want to find out about it and clean them out."

But later he admitted that perhaps he'd rather tell his information to clean the Klan just for the pleasure in it.

NEW RUMBLES IN WEST SIDE PARK VOLCANO

Lundin-Thompson Seismograph Wiggles.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

Rumors of another impending row on Gov. Small's west park board, adding a new chapter to the Lundin-Thompson split, came to light yesterday. As a result of the threatened new outbreak it was hinted that there may be another hasty reorganization of the board soon. A new attorney for the west park commission was named yesterday by Dr. John Dill Robertson, who recently became president following the latest board rumpus.

A forerunner to a new outbreak was seen in the resignation of Rupert F. Bippus, son of former State Representative Fred P. Bippus, a Thompsonite, as attorney for the board, and that of William C. Patterson as special counsel. Daniel Roberts, former assistant in the corporation counsel's office under Samuel A. Eitelson, was named to succeed Bippus. Patterson's resignation becomes effective July 1.

Expect Governor to Act.

Efforts were made to quiet the rumors that one and perhaps several of the board members would be ousted soon. Gov. Small arrived in Chicago yesterday to witness the Memorial day parade today and it was whispered that he might remove another commissioner or two before he leaves.

Most of the series of rows on the west park board are traceable to political jealousies, friction over patronage, and more recently, to the split between Mayor William Hale Thompson and Fred Lundin. Thompson's respective followers are taking sides and the feeling is daily growing tenser.

Dr. Robertson was put in as president by Gov. Small in an effort to smooth things over. So far as the Thompson followers are concerned the appointment of Robertson made things worse. They say he is Lundin's "straw man."

May Stick to Lundin.

Political sagas, viewing the Lundin-Thompson racket from the side lines, predict that Gov. Small, when forced to show down in expressing his choice between Lundin and Thompson for state administration victory in Chicago, will side with Lundin. He and Small have played the game together for two decades or more. Small knows Lundin's methods and manipulations, credits him with winning the governorship in 1920, and knows him as the detour at the city hall during the Thompson régime.

WIDOW OF NOTED BOOKMAKER WINS IN WILL CONTEST

New York, May 29.—(Special.)—As a result of today's decision by the appellate division of the supreme court, Mrs. Julia E. Wheelock, former wife of Elia McCoy, the pugilist, will inherit the $450,000 estate left to her by her husband, George A. Wheelock, bookmaker and once president of the Metropolitan Turf association.

The higher court affirmed the judgment of Surrogate O'Brien in having probated the will of the testator after a jury trial in which the soundness of his mind at the time of making the will was questioned.

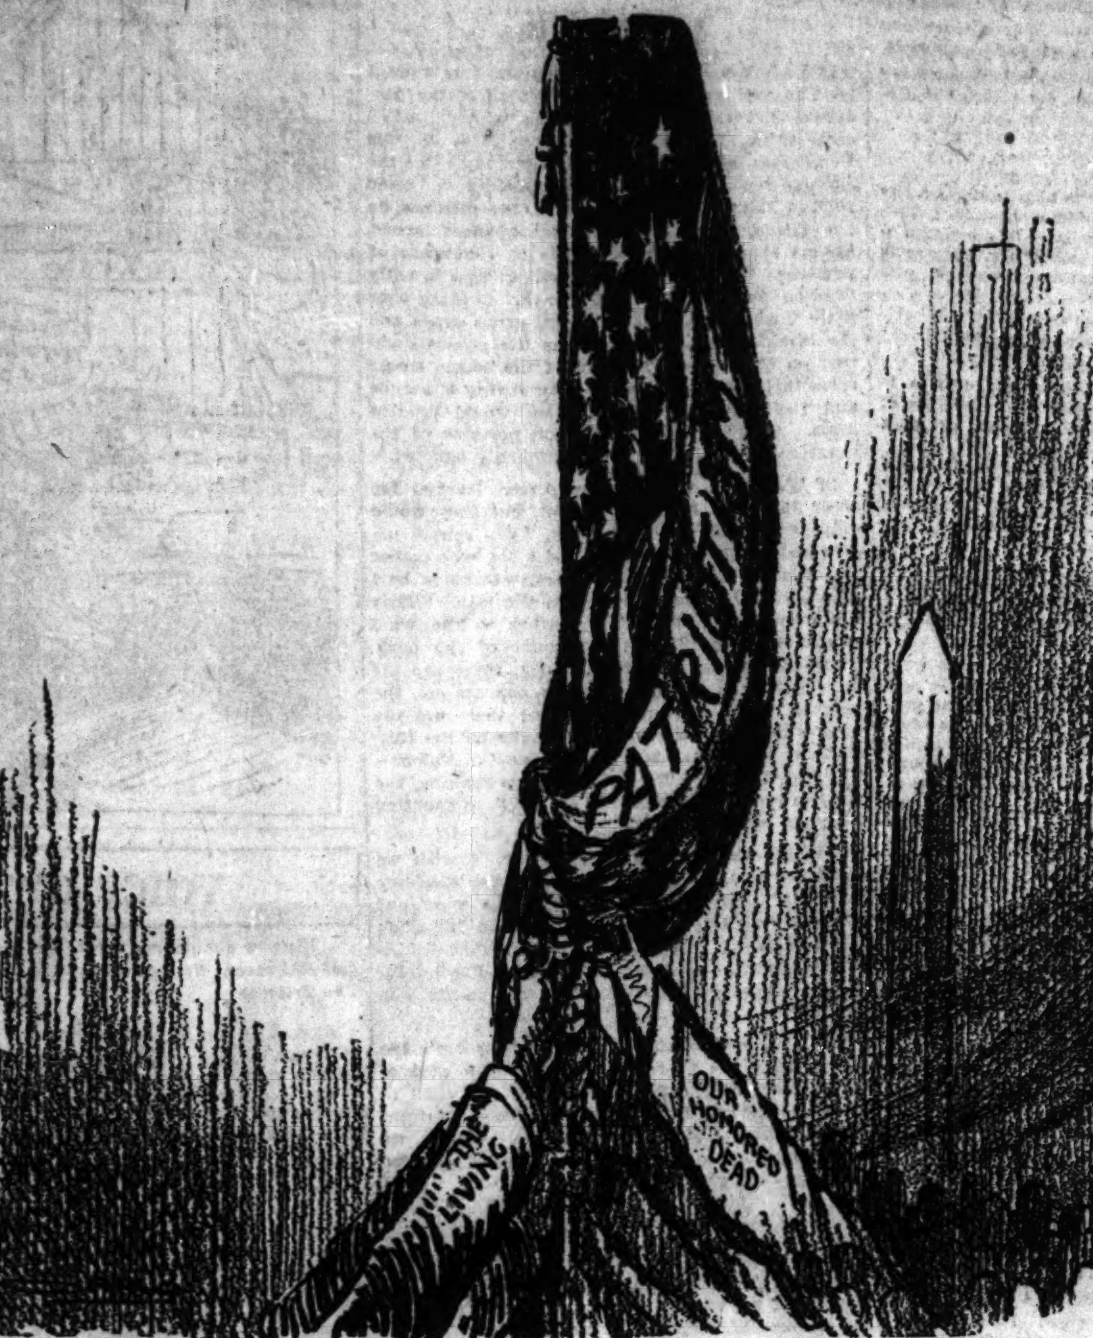

The will, leaving practically all the estate to the widow, was contested by William Addison Wheelock, a brother of the testator, and his sister, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Griffith of Granite City, Ill. They contended that their brother was of unsound mind when he made his will in January, 1922, and that Mrs. Wheelock herself on May 15 of that year sought to have him declared incompetent.

Girl Missing; Parents Fear She May Have Been Stolen

Relative of Jimmy Lykowski, 13, of 1811 Iowa street, who disappeared yesterday morning while on her way home from church, told the police last night they believe the girl was spirited away by a man about 30 years old who had been seen talking to her on the street on several occasions. Other children saw the man talking to the girl Wednesday afternoon.

OFFERS BY MARX TO FOES DRAW DEMAND FOR RULE

Nationalists Turn Prima Donnas.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1924, By The Chicago Tribune.)
BERLIN, May 29.—Chancellor Marx conferred with the representatives of the Nationalists today, offering them posts as vice chancellor, foreign minister, and food minister. Seeing Herr Marx anxious to have their collaboration, the nationalists put on prima donna moods and increased their demands at every new conference, regardless of the fact that on June 15 the agreement with the interallied commission of control expires, leaving the country without a financial agreement of any kind for the payment and delivery of coal to France and Belgium.

Want It All.

The Nationalist representatives conferring with Herr Marx demanded the chancellor's post and the ministries of the interior and of foreign affairs, and a solemn promise from the center party not to break the present broad coalition existing in Prussia between the Socialists, the Democrats, and the Center People's parties.

The official party conferences were postponed until tomorrow, since today is Ascension day, and all Germany, according to tradition, must spend a day out in the country on an excursion.

Ebert May Close Reichstag.

Finding the new reichstag as refractory as the previous one, President Ebert is preparing to use the extraordinary power given by article 48 in the constitution. As soon as the hard job of forming the cabinet has been achieved by the reichstag the members will be sent home to enjoy the legal summer holiday.

ODDS ON COOLIDGE DROP AS LA FOLLETTE HAT GOES IN RING

LA FOLLETTE'S BOOM LAUNCHED FROM CHICAGO

New York, May 29.—(United News.)—Odds on President Coolidge's chances of election have shortened since Senator La Follette (Rep., Wis.) announced he would head a third party ticket if the old parties failed to name a progressive for President, according to Wall Street betting commissioners. Coolidge money is now quoted at 3 to 5, as against a previous high of 5 to 1.

One western man today placed a bet of $5,000 to $12,000, or 1 to 2½, that Gov. Al Smith would be the next President.

The betting commissioners are offering 4½ to 1 on the nominations of McAdoo, Glass, Davis, and Ralston.

RAIL UNION HEAD URGES WOMEN TO BACK LAFOLLETTE

Cleveland, O., May 29.—Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, addressing the women's auxiliaries here today, urged Senator Robert M. La Follette for President.

"It is up to you women to get out and work with the men in aid of La Follette and to clean up politics," Mr. Stone said. "The fact is apparent that the Republican convention is going to nominate a reactionary—President Coolidge."

The Coolidge candidacy is impossible from a progressive viewpoint, Mr. Stone said. La Follette, he declared, is the only progressive to support.

LA FOLLETTE'S BOOM LAUNCHED FROM CHICAGO

Senator La Follette's independent candidacy for President already is a "going concern" in advance of the old party national conventions, it is declared by politicians. There is sufficient reason to presume that the pre-convention activities meet his tacit approval at least, they assert.

Petitions asking him to lead a fight against the Cleveland and New York nominees are in circulation. They were sent out by La Follette headquarters in Chicago, where Harry Southworth of Wisconsin, one of the La Follette stalwarts in the senator's home state, is in charge.

One of the first cities to report circulation of these petitions was Cedar Rapids, Ia., where a batch of them was received by R. U. Yessier, an attorney, who obtained fifty signatures the first day.

"Diamond Harry" Loses
$12,000 Worth in Sleeper

H. A. Sodini, owner of several hotels in Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn., awoke in his berth on a Chicago bound New York Central train yesterday to discover that $12,000 worth of jewelry had been stolen from his clothing while he and his wife slept. Sodini, who was known as "Diamond Harry" in the days when he was prominent in local theatrical circles, reported his loss as soon as he registered at Hotel Morrison. Railroad police and Pullman investigators are collaborating in the hunt for the sleeping car "Raffles," who has been operating extensively during the last few months.

BLAST IMPERILS ROUMANIAN KING; SMASHES PALACE

Big Munition Dump Blows Up in Bucharest.

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1924, By The Chicago Tribune.)
BUCHAREST, Roumania, May 29.—A huge munitions depot near Bucharest blew up yesterday afternoon. Four hundred cartloads of heavy shells, 400 cars of small arms and ammunition, and 200 cars of gunpowder were destroyed. The blasts shook Bucharest like an earthquake and smashed thousands of big windows. Thousands of people, panic-stricken, scurried into cellars.

The firemen were able to isolate the underground depot containing 2,500 cars of munitions. A slight breeze carried away from the Roumanian capital wave after wave of yellow poison gas that lastly rose from the ruins.

The royal castle, Cotroceni, on the western edge of Bucharest, which is only 500 yards from the army munitions depot and shell filling works, was shaken like a leaf and the walls were scarred and pierced by projectiles. A priceless collection of art objects was torn and slashed. The beautiful young Princess Ileana was rescued from the palace.

Report Many Were Killed.

BUCHAREST, May 29.—(United Press.)—Many persons were killed and injured and the royal families of Roumania and Greece barely escaped with their lives when munitions magazines and artillery dumps near Bucharest blew up in a series of deafening explosions that continued throughout Wednesday.

King Has Narrow Escape.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, May 29.—The Daily Mail's correspondent in Bucharest cables that damage amounting to between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 resulted from the ammunition dump fire two miles west of that city yesterday. The dump is less than a mile from the royal palace at Cotroceni, which was greatly damaged, the ceiling in the king's apartments collapsing. The royal family, with the former king and queen of Greece, moved to the town palace.

The king of Roumania had a narrow escape when a large shell dropped on a spot where he had stood a few seconds previously. Parliament was forced to suspend its sitting, owing to the force of the detonations.

Rerouting of Loop Cars and Busses Soon to End Traffic Jam

Plans for reducing loop traffic congestion through rerouting surface line cars and west side motor busses advanced a step yesterday at a hearing before the Illinois commerce commission when representatives of the city, the surface lines and bus company tentatively agreed upon a comprehensive rerouting plan.

This plan was worked out several weeks ago by Maj. E. F. Keller, a city engineer, in cooperation with engineers for the surface lines. At yesterday's hearing former Corporation Counsel William H. Sexton represented the city, Attorney James C. Condon appeared for the Chicago Motor Coach company, while Attorney Harry Weber presented the surface lines' case.

Eliminates Street Terminals.

The street car rerouting will eliminate about 80 per cent of left hand turns and 34 per cent of right hand turns. It will do away with stub terminals at Adams and State streets and at Van Buren and State streets. West side street cars will use Dearborn street as a turning point instead of State street. The latter street will be left clear for through traffic. Except in emergencies the third State street track will not be used.

MEANS ACCUSES MELLON, UPHAM IN LIQUOR PLOT

Bootleggers' Money Paid G. O. P. Debts, He Says

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Washington, D. C., May 29.—(Special.)—Gaston B. Means' farrowed appearance before the gold mirror in the Brookhart committee room today was marked by a violent attack upon Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, who was described as the "arch enemy" of the American republic.

Means is the man acquitted of a murder in North Carolina a few years ago. He is recalled to Chicagoans as having failed to get admitted to probate a "second" James C. King will which would have knocked out the King Old Man's home.

Mr. Means' vindictiveness is explained by the fact that he considers Mr. Mellon responsible for the indictments in New York under which he is in stand trial June 3. His testimony was based on this account.

Charges Against Mr. Mellon.

Sending forth a tremendous smoke screen under which he hopes to evade the government trap set for him in New York, the famous investigator proceeded to charge against Mr. Mellon:

That he entered into an arrangement with Fred W. Upham, Senator H. O. Bursum of New Mexico, and one Rex Sheldon to have a large quantity of whisky released under permits, and that part of the millions made under this transaction would be used to pay toward the deficit of the Republican national committee.

That the Mellon banks had a line of "frozen credits" in whisky certificates and papers and active in getting liquor out of warehouses on any kind of permits in order to realize on their loans.

In Roadhouse Business.

That the Mellon "interests" in Pittsburgh are in control of the Motor Square hotel and other notorious roadhouses where liquor is sold freely, and where Mr. Means witnessed "lewd dances" and other things which he hesitated to describe.

"Mellon is the one to be investigated," said Means. "He is the arch enemy of this government. He was born grabbing the dollars of Harry Daugherty is a fine, higher class man."

Mr. Mellon, commenting tonight on the Means testimony, said:

"The responsibility of Means before the committee today is too absurd to deserve notice. Some months ago I was subpoenaed by the committee, but have as yet not been asked to appear. If the committee gives any credence to Means' story it will undoubtedly call on me for the facts."

Won't Be Given a Chance.

There is little likelihood that Mr. Mellon will have a chance to tell the facts before congress adjourns.

Mr. Means managed to get along fairly well without his famous diaries and black books, which were "stolen" on the night of March 21. In fact he had discovered that a few of these documents had been laid aside and had escaped the thieves, and therefore, was able to enlighten the committee on the outwitting conspiracy which was backed by Mitsui & Co., Japanese Imperial bankers of New York, and had for one object the overthrow of the Oregon government in Mexico.

Says Harding Was Curious.

In telling of his various secret investigations for Jess W. Smith and W. J. Burns, Means asserted that President Harding had asked for investigation of Brig. Gen. Sawyer, Col. Henry Darden, Mrs. Cross, Elias H. Mortimer, Gray Silver, and Henry Ford.

"What did you find out about Sawyer?" asked Chairman Smith W. Brookhart.

"I wanted to find out his activities, his political position, how he was building his organization, the Farm Bureau federation. I got his full history. He said he had created the farm bloc in the senate."

"Did he tell you how much he got from Ford to promote Muscle Shoals?"

"No."

Why He Investigated Ford.

"What did you want to know about Ford?"

"What his feeling was toward the administration, what his political ambitions were, and what was the motive behind his attack on the Jewish race. I got Dr. Houghton, one of his agents, and Mr. Charles Daniels. Ford had a regular detective bureau in New York."

"No."

BILL FOR PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE MUST GO OVER TO DECEMBER

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Chairman Fairchild of the house insular affairs committee was informed today by the Republican steering committee that if congress adjourns by June 7 it would be impossible for the house to consider at this session his bill providing for Philippine independence twenty years hence.

Mr. Fairchild urged that the proposal be put to a vote next week but was told that calendars were too crowded to give it right of way.

Decision to put action on the measure over until the December session was reached coincident with announcement in the senate that the territories committee next Monday would take up the bill by Senator Johnson (Rep., Cal.) which is similar to the Fairchild measure.

I met his secretary. He is a Jew himself—a nice fellow."

In connection with the story of George Remus, Chicago lawyer and millionaire bootlegger, who had to go to prison even though Means said he had paid $200,000 for protection to Jess Smith, Means told of a final effort on the part of Remus to escape, after Smith had killed himself, and his last chance was before the Supreme court.

Squirreling for a Release.

"I ran across him in the Southern building, and he was very much agitated," said Means. "He wanted some way to get direct influence in connection with the Supreme court hearings."

I suggested that he employ Wickham, Taft, and Caldwell, and that if he put up a proper fee he was pretty apt to get a hearing. He said he would rather bring influence.

"I got in touch with W. C. Underwood, and he made a proposition of $125,000 or $150,000 to get the proper hearing. I submitted it to Remus, and he would not agree. I carried back a counter proposition. I asked Underwood how he would handle it, and he said through Alfred Urien. I do not know what happened."

Referring to the charge that Mr. Mellon was involved in rum plots, Means told of the "substance" of a confession which he said he obtained from one Stevens, auditor for the La Montagne whisky ring in New York, in the Vanderbilt hotel, where Means said he had a suite of five rooms paid for with money advanced by Smith through Mr. Harding's funds.

Scuffs Works on Case.

"Capt. H. L. Scuffs was working for me then. Mellon told him he had not done anything in this direction, but that Senator Bursum had, that Bursum and Upham and Sheldon had come to his office about it. My data will show this is not a fact."

Here Means produced one of his famous black note books, the "active" one that he has been using since this committee began work. He went on in his rambling way to tell of informing Col. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, of the situation. He gave the exact hour on Sept. 21, 1922, when he interviewed Miller, telling him what Mellon had said to Scuffs.

Senator Bursum will confirm," he said, "that Miller, Bursum and myself met in conference, and that Bursum said that he did not go with Sheldon to Mellon's office at all, but had sent Sheldon there, as he had sent hundreds of other applicants. The next day Col. Miller sent for me and we talked of the Scuffs interview with Mellon. I told Scuffs to dictate a letter to Mellon stating the terms of the interview and have Mellon confirm, but Scuffs said he would not do that as Mellon was too high class. On Sept. 25, Under-secretary Gilbert said he would have shadows put on Scuffs and would land him in jail."

Says Mellon Denied Visit.

"Mellon, in the meantime, had consulted with people, had seen the danger of his position, and had reversed himself and denied that he had told Scuffs of the visit of these three men."

"The treasury department knew I was after Stevens and had him under surveillance to keep him from telling his story. As soon as he signed the affidavit I took it to Holly Clark, assistant district attorney. I had a copy of my bags that were stolen."

"What was the substance of it?" asked Senator B. K. Wheeler.

"It involved Upham and the complete whisky ring."

Says Upham Got Permits.

"How Upham?"

"He was instrumental in getting the permits for the La Montagne, who supplied the Newport crowd."

"How was Upham involved?" Senator Wheeler asked. "You do not make it clear."

"He had worked in connection with the Green River crowd," said Means.

"Stevens did not know who Upham was and refers to him casually in his confession. He had his name spelled wrong. He doesn't know today who Upham is, but I know. The confession shows how they got the wine and whisky out of the New York warehouse. I gave a copy of the confession to a New York newspaper man to force an admission."

Sheldon, he said, has since been indicted.

Mellon Gained Influence.

Means said that Jess Smith told him that at first Mellon had no heavy influence with Harding but that later he got on a footing where Harding was inclined to take his advice in preference to that of any other cabinet officer, and that this caused a confusion and jealousy on the part of Daugherty.

It was then, Means said, that Smith, acting ostensibly for the President, but in reality for Daugherty, started out after the booting ring.

Worked with Bootleggers.

"The first case I had in connection with bootleggers was the Guckenholts distillery case in which there was a complete report and proof of forged permits made by Oscar Guckenholts of Johnstown, Pa. In that case $125,000 was withdrawn illegally. They made a proposition to pay me $25,000 to get the papers to prevent prosecution. I reported to W. J. Burns, John W. H. Crim, and Mrs. Mabel Whitebrandt on this and other cases. I was instructed to work with bootleggers and get the government officers involved."

While working for Smith in various jobs Means said that he hired a Miss Laura Jacobson.

VOTERS TO PICK JUDGES OF HIGH COURT MONDAY

Cook County's Size Counts for Little.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Next Monday, with no political upsurge and no campaign ban, Cook County practically will elect one of its three coordinate branches of state government.

Five of the seven judges of the Supreme court are to be chosen by the voters. The bulk of the high bench at the head of the judicial department, the supreme tribunal, which even sits in judgment on the legislative branch and interprets the laws and holds them valid or knocks them cold, as the case may be, is to be picked at the polls.

Interest is slight. Campaigning has been quiet, interest is slumbering, the noise of the political campaign is silent in the air, which is as it should be in the interval of the importance of the offices to be filled is vastly more vital than the ordinary voter realizes.

Chicago has a deep interest in the election. Cook county is about to fill one of the most precious offices in its gift—the rare value may be judged from the meagerness of the showing for the highest tribunal in the state. Cook county has 47 per cent of the population of the state, but it is permitted to elect only one-seventh of the supreme court. And it must share this with four other counties, Lake, Will, Kankakee, and Du Page.

Makes Strange Comparison. All told the five counties in this seventh district have a population of 2,307,000 out of 6,485,000 in Illinois (1920 census).

In other words, one-half of the population elects one-seventh of the supreme court, and Monday is the one day every nine years when we exercise that rare and precious privilege. This time the electors are to fill the shoes of two of the heavyweights of the supreme tribunal. The recent death of Justice James H. Cartwright, who served nearly thirty years, and the retirement of Justice Orrin N. Carter of Chicago after eighteen years in the tribunal, have removed two of the greatest jurists, and Monday their places are to be filled.

Wins Honors in Law. In only three districts are there contests. Down in Egypt in the First district Justice Warren W. Duncan of Marion, who has been on the Supreme bench since 1915, is opposed by Paul Farthing, a blind attorney of East St. Louis, who was nominated by the Democratic party. Mr. Farthing, who has been blind since boyhood, got honors in law school, his brother reading the text books to him, and in the southern part of the state he is accounted among the keenest and best founded lawyers of the district.

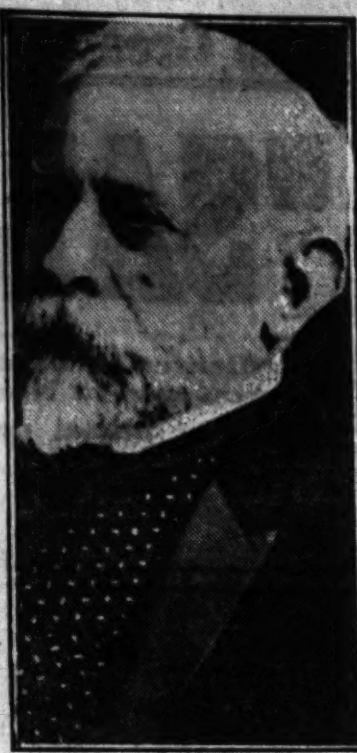

In this campaign his wife has been driving him through the region in the greatest of his life, and has been addressing women voters while her husband has been discouraging before the men. It is said to be quite an intense fight, although Justice Duncan by virtue of his reputation and record on the bench has a long start in the district which is preponderantly Republican.

Depend Much on Weather. Mr. Farthing's supporters cast their vote on the weather largely. This time a sunny day will be accounted as Democratic weather, for the reason that the season is two or three weeks behind and a good day might keep the farmers in their fields planting. This would divert more power to the urban vote, and in industrial centers like East St. Louis the Democrats might roll up votes enough to make it a real race.

In the Second district Justice William M. Farmer of Vandalla is unopposed. He has been on the Supreme bench since 1904, and before that was a Circuit court judge for some nine years. He is one of the two Democrats in the Supreme court, the other being Justice Floyd E. Thompson of Rock Island, who is not up for reelection this time.

Third District Contest. The Third district has a contest, Justice Frank K. Dunn of Charleston, who has been on the Supreme court since 1907 and is accounted one of its luminaries, is opposed by Lawrence B. Stringer of Lincoln. Mr. Stringer was the Democratic candidate for governor in 1904 against Charles S. Deneen, was later placed on the court of claims by Gov. Deneen, and is now county judge of Logan county. This district is preponderantly Republican.

The Fourth and Fifth districts do not elect this year. In the Sixth, the Republicans have nominated Judge Oscar E. Heard of Freeport for the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Cartwright. He has no opposition. He has been a Circuit judge for some twenty years and has often sat in the Cook county court.

Two Seek Carter's Place. The Cook county district—the Seventh—has two candidates for the position which Justice Carter is relinquishing after a career of great service. The Republicans have nominated Judge Frederic R. De Young of Harvey, and the Democrats have named Angus Roy Shannon, former attorney for the board of education, who for years has been in the thick of more than one fight in the interests of the public weal. The candidates will be discussed in two later articles, with sketches of their careers, their views on what the election means—Mr. Shannon tomorrow, Judge De Young Sunday.

BRITAIN OFFERS TO PAY $250,000 FOR 'DEATH RAY' (Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.) PARIS, May 29.—Great Britain tonight made an offer of $250,000 in cash to Grindell Matthews for the secret of his death ray.

The English inventor whose potential war engine is sought by six world powers told THE TRIBUNE that the offer came so suddenly and unexpectedly that he had asked time to think it over. He has arranged another meeting with the British agent for tomorrow morning.

Mr. Calley, a member of the London firm of Gubbins, Calley & Sambourne, who was granted an injunction against Mr. Matthews, arrived in Paris late this afternoon. Mr. Matthews had dinner with the inventor. He urged Mr. Matthews to keep the ray for England "for patriotic reasons," and then made the cash offer. Mr. Calley's firm holds 52 per cent interest in the commercial profits of Mr. Matthews' invention. THE TRIBUNE was informed reliably that Mr. Calley's visit was directly inspired by the British war office.

FROM old Boston Town, back in 1864, came stories of a remarkable coffee. It was a rich, rare flavor, they said, and, furthermore, it was "always the same." Sixty years ago... People are saying the same things about Chase & Sanborn's Coffee to-day.

Buy a pound of Seal Brand in the sealed tin. Convince yourself that America showed good judgment, as usual, in approving this really fine coffee.

MELLON STILL IS HOLDING TAX REDUCTION BILL

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—Delay in sending the treasury report on the tax bill to the President may mean that the bill will not be signed before next Monday, although there continue to be no doubt he will sign the bill. Secretary Mellon had expected to forward the report to-day, but decided to wait until Saturday. Treasury estimates of revenues for the next two fiscal years as prepared for the information of President Coolidge in guiding his action upon the tax bill show not only a comfortable surplus for the fiscal year 1925 but a considerably larger surplus for the fiscal year 1926.

No Deficit in Sight. Estimates for the fiscal year 1925 under the operation of the new tax bill have not been made public, but it was learned that the new figures indicate that there is no deficit whatever in prospect. The estimate for the fiscal year 1925 under the new bill, which was recently furnished members of congress, showed a surplus of $130,000,000 without taking into account the soldiers' bonus.

The cost of the bonus for the year as provided in a deficiency bill to be reported to the house tomorrow from the house committee on appropriations, is about $122,000,000, which will still leave a surplus of about $8,000,000, not taking into account about $7,000,000 additional which congress will have below budget estimates in the annual appropriation bills.

It is indicated in the treasury estimates which have been prepared for President Coolidge that the collection of back taxes in 1924 will yield much more revenue than at first thought. Back Taxes Estimates Low. In the estimates for the fiscal year 1925 it was figured that $200,000,000 would be derived from the collection of back taxes. It is considered probable the actual amount for that year will be closer to $250,000,000, and may even exceed that amount. These additional back taxes are expected to be sufficient to take care of all the miscellaneous appropriations by congress not included in the budget.

Under the new treasury estimates for the fiscal year 1926 allowance has been made for increased revenues due to a stimulation of business from the reduced tax rates, notwithstanding that the high rates were not cut to the point recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

HARBORD BOOMED FOR VICE PRESIDENT ON COOLIDGE TICKET

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—A boom for Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord, former chief of staff of the A. E. F. and now president of the Radio Corporation of America, as a candidate for the vice presidency on the Coolidge ticket was launched here today. Gen. Henry J. Reilly of Chicago, who is a member of the Illinois American Legion and editor of the Army and Navy Journal, is one of the leading spirits in the movement. He arrived here today for the announced purpose of interesting the ex-service men in congress in soldier candidates for the vice presidency in both parties.

"The ex-soldier candidate will have a decisive advantage," said Gen. Reilly tonight. "These patriotic votes amount to more than 15,000,000, for our 4,500,000 ex-service men have wives, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters. The choice of every service man with whom I have talked is Jim Harbord. I understand the Republican leaders want a western man. Harbord was born in Illinois and grew to manhood in Kansas."

SPEED HARVEST IS NOW RUNNING TWO EACH DAY

Present Average High as Last Summer.

Motor fatalities in Cook county, despite the vigorous campaign being waged against speeding, reckless and intoxicated drivers, have increased again to the "two a day" average which prevailed during most of last summer.

In the twenty-day period since the first of May there have been 63 motor fatalities, which even surpasses the average of two each day.

There were two victims yesterday, a boy and a man. Their deaths raised the year's motor toll to 233.

CHARLES B. LEIS.
Boy Is Killed.

Frank Kring, 4, 7133 Indiana avenue, was playing with several other boys in the street near his home when an automobile driven by John J. McNees, 4613 Indiana avenue, struck and fatally injured him. The boy died after McNees, who was not held responsible, took him to the Washington Park hospital.

The other victim was Henry Christensen, 23, 7153 Winchester avenue, who died in St. Mary's hospital, Chicago Heights. Christensen was fatally injured last Saturday when the automobile in which he was riding overturned on the Dixie highway, south of Evanston, Ill. Three other occupants of the car escaped with slight injuries.

Gets Bridewell Sentence.

Three months imprisonment in the Bridewell and a $200 fine was the penalty imposed yesterday on Karlstedt Jackson, 31, 6297 South Wabash avenue, by Judge G. S. Adams in the Speeders court. He was charged with reckless driving and an attempted escape after a motor accident.

Police Sergeant Richard J. Sheehy testified he had been driving with three small children in his car when Jackson's automobile crashed into them at Wabash, avenue and 47th street. Two of the children were killed, the third was severely injured. Sheehy picked them up and gave chase to Jackson's fleeing car, capturing the driver.

Judge Adams discharged Dr. Frank Achats, 3258 West Jackson boulevard, on a charge of driving while intoxicated. The court ruled the evidence against the physician was insufficient.

Dies of His Injuries.

Charles B. Leis, 60 years old, 885 15th street, Winnetka, who was injured in an automobile accident Tuesday at North Paulina street and Thome avenue, died later at St. Francis hospital, Blue Island.

While crossing South Halsted street at West 14th street last night Mrs. Clara O'Day, 45 years old, 5049 West Adams street, was knocked down by a northbound automobile. She was taken to her home where it was learned three ribs were broken. The driver of the automobile, license number, 423-075, stopped for an instant after the accident, then continued on his way.

City Is Enjoined from the Licensing of Coal Yards

Revenue heretofore received by the city for licenses for retail coal dealers was cut off yesterday. Circuit Judge Francis S. Wilson issued an injunction against such collection. He held with Attorney Joseph Fleming of McCormick, Kirkland, Patterson & Fleming, who argued for 150 coal dealers, that the licensing ordinance was illegal. Each coal yard was licensed at $40 a year, with $10 for each vehicle used in the business.

HANDS OF DEATH

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths by autos, guns, and moonshine in Cook county since Jan. 1 last.

NICKEL PLATE CALUMET PLAN STRIKES A SNAG

Monopoly Cry Raised in Committee Hearing.

Opposition to plans of the Nickel Plate Railroad company to undertake construction of the Calumet harbor in return for certain concessions, including belt line rights and considerable track space, developed in yesterday's meeting of the council harbor, wharves and bridges committee.

Several proposals that the channels should be dug and the wharves built by the city, the sanitary district or a group of interested railroads, were discussed by the committee members and officials of a half dozen railroads and steamship companies who attended the meeting.

Plan Is Explained.

"The Nickel Plate line has offered to spend approximately $600,000 to dig a channel with two 600 foot turning basins in return for the right to purchase from the city acreage for switching yards as well as a belt line right of way around the harbor," William A. Colston, vice president and general counsel of the road, said. "A start would be made as soon as the necessary certificates of convenience and necessity had been obtained from the interstate commerce commission and the project approved by the people."

Raises Monopoly Point.

"The harbor belt line shall be the property of the city," declared S. W. Gehr, general counsel of the Pullman railroad company. "And while the city may lease it or grant privileges for its use for a limited term, the city cannot, under the act, part with the title, nor, in our view, even if it has the power, which is doubtful, should the city grant any privilege to a single interest that would amount to a monopoly of the use of the belt line railroad, except on terms which would make it use available to the traffic of every railroad entering the city and of every shipper who desired to reach the harbor or to ship outward from the harbor his goods or property."

"What we are attempting to discover is if any other railroad or group of railroads will offer a better program than the Nickel Plate's scheme," declared Ald. Guy Guernsey (D), chairman of the committee. "It is possible that it would be better if the city were to build the harbor itself."

DIES ON THE JOB.

Daniel Butler, 50, of 607 South 10th street, Marquette, Ill., a plumber, dropped dead while working on a building at North LaSalle and Giddings streets.

For your home in FLOSSMOOR PARK Beautiful

Only in Flossmoor Park —

Thousands of business and professional men, especially those living on the South Side, have sought in vain that ideal combination—a suburban home, in naturally beautiful environment, yet with every city convenience and rapid transportation, giving convenient access to the business and amusement centers of the city.

Flossmoor Park provides opportunity for a limited number of people to procure sites for such homes, with all the advantages above enumerated, located in a restricted residential community of wholesome and refined character, where undesirable elements are forever barred.

As it is only in Flossmoor that residents of the South Side can find suitable location for suburban homes, the lots in this artistic and unique country club subdivision are certain always to be worth more tomorrow than they are today.

John Canace

FLOSSMOOR
PARK

FORTY-EIGHT minutes from the loop on the Illinois Central in that stream-traversed golf country extending north and south of Flossmoor, there lies a beautiful tract of one hundred and fifteen acres of gently rolling land, fronting three well-known thoroughfares and overlooking the broad green reaches of the Flossmoor and Idlewild Country Clubs. This is Flossmoor Park.

It is bounded on the East by the Dixie Highway, on the South by Illinois Street and on the West by Western Avenue, which includes the two important motor routes leading south out of Chicago. It is right at Flossmoor, a high grade home community in which some of the finest suburban homes to be seen about Chicago are now located—near by also are ample local shopping facilities, schools and churches.

The present splendid express service maintained by the Illinois Central will be greatly augmented when the program of track elevation and electrification, now under way, has been completed. Trains that now run to and from the loop in 48 minutes will then make the run in 35 minutes. It will be a delightful ride along the lake and through the open country in luxuriously appointed electric express trains.

This land has now been subdivided according to a plan, and under the direction of Messrs. Bennett, Parsons and Frost, noted city planners, and is being developed with broad, paved, winding roads, trees and shrubbery, with wide building lines and building restrictions that assure the permanent desirability of Flossmoor Park as a place to live. Cheap or unsightly homes and all business and apartment development are forever excluded.

The First Cost Is the Last Cost

Paved streets, sidewalks, sewers, water, gas and electricity are being installed and the homesites will be sold with these improvements in and paid for. This will be carried out completely and promptly and every promise generously fulfilled exactly as was done by this organization in South Shore Park, where streets and every improvement were immediately installed and promptly paid for, at a cost of over four hundred thousand dollars.

Lots in Flossmoor Park range in size from 50 to 100 feet in width, with an average depth of 180 feet. Prices run from $1650 to $6000—from $33 to $60 per front foot—which is lower than any comparable suburban property that is now, or will ever again, be available.

Whether you intend to build at once, or merely to make sure of one of these homesites for future use, or to invest where rising values assure substantial increases—it will be well worth your while to see Flossmoor Park without delay.

There are only 318 lots to be sold. They may be seen now, today, but on Sunday a special train will leave the Randolph Street Illinois Central Station, taking on passengers at Randolph Street, Van Buren Street, 43rd, 53rd and 63rd Streets.

Your Transportation Free On I. C. Flossmoor Park Special Sunday

You will find our representatives waiting for you Sunday at any of the above I. C. Stations. You will recognize these men by their Flossmoor Park badges and they will give you free tickets. Elsewhere on this page the time schedule of this special train is printed. Come out on this train Sunday or motor out, as soon as you can, via Western Avenue or any other motor road leading south to Dixie Highway.

Office on grounds open today and every day. If you cannot come, by all means send the coupon below for booklet descriptive of Flossmoor Park Beautiful.

Charlie Understands Women and He Says He's Afraid of 'Em

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Charlie Chaplin was asked by a writer for a movie magazine what was his chief interest in life.

His answer was "Women." Why? "Because they are the most interesting, fascinating, and charming subject in the world," he volunteered. "They provide color and beauty and the pleasant side of life to man."

All of which was extremely nice and flattering to Charlie--but! He says he is afraid of them. Afraid of them "because they are growing more and more materialistic every day."

"Men are the great sentimentalists in life," he states seriously.

The common idea that women are more sentimental than men, the famous film comedian says, is pure fallacy. Women, in his opinion, are more direct in handling a situation. They are more practical. When a woman sees what she wants, she goes straight after it. And she generally gets it, too. Which, by the way, is not showing him with flowers, is it? One cannot imagine that there has been a woman of the last few years with materialistic soul so dead, she never to herself said, "O, Charlie C, I'll get you yet!"

"Any woman in the world," he adds, "if she makes up her mind to get anything, especially if the thing she wants happens to be a man, can get him. I don't care if she is cross-eyed, knock-kneed or bow-legged. She will get him in the end. She always has."

Later in the interview, the film comedian confessed to a sense of utter futility overcoming him with such frequency of late that he bought a small house in the woods, where he could go brood, and sleep it off.

That might indeed be the reaction of the poor male who knows there is no use struggling since some girl will get him in the end. And suppose he were the cross-eyed one?

But we hear this theory of the girl's being able to get the man who wants her. We have seen the man led triumphantly to the altar in a number of instances. Yet the marriage story was not always so triumphant a one. We have often wondered if it is possible to make a man love you. We think of the story of the farmer, returning from his wife's burial, who said to the commiserating friend that she was a good wife. In fact, "there was none better," he admitted.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?

adding dolefully: "But you know I never cared much for the woman."

We suspect this feeling is not unique among husbands who have been "got." As Charlie Chaplin suggests:

We do not agree with Mr. Chaplin that a woman can always get the man she wants. We have seen it tried with the result a failure. Perhaps the fault was in the method of reaching for him. No ruler are furnished by the comedian for a successful campaign. In self-defense, maybe, he refuses to divulge them.

Women are never so materialistic as they are content with just the man. They want him with his heart thrown in. If she does not get that, he is not the man she wants.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Those Blue Envelopes.

"Dear Doris Blake: I have been going with a girl for one year and a half and whenever she got any mail she would always ask me if I cared to read it, but there was one time she got a letter and I saw the letter, but she didn't ask me if I wanted to read that one, and that one came in a blue envelope. About two weeks later another one of the same kind came and she didn't ask me then if I wanted to read it. So can you tell me how I can find out who those letters were from so I won't hurt her feelings because I love her dearly."

"BROKEN IN FAITH."

Why let a blue envelope come between you and the girl you really care for? And I don't think you have any reason to lose faith in her because of it. Either. No doubt, these letters were of a confidential nature, as she did not hesitate to show you the other letters she received. Then again, there isn't any reason why she should show any of her letters to you, now, is there?

Fine Arts Building Acclaimed as Site for Conventions

Support for the proposal to restore and turn the old Fine Arts building in Jackson park into a convention hall came from two sources yesterday to Edward J. Kelly, president of the South park board.

The first was John Bain, South park commissioner, who was absent when the vote to place the $5,000,000 restoration fund bond issue before the people was taken, and who has just returned from a trip to Scotland for his health. Mr. Bain voiced a possibility that the cost of restoration might come under the $5,000,000 maximum. He declared that the electrification of the Illinois Central railroad would bring the proposed convention hall within ten minutes' ride of the loop.

"The proposed hall greatly should enhance real estate values," he declared, "and bring additional millions to the south side. We of the south side feel that other sections of the city are gaining an advantage due to the energy displayed along the lines of improvements and their activities in advertising."

The second source of support for the question which the voters must pass on next Monday came from E. R. Graham, senior member of the architectural firm of Graham, Anderson, Probst and White, and architect for the proposed changes.

A comedy will be presented by the dramatic club of the school.

Something New in Excuses

I had been absent from school the previous day, and, as was the custom, I brought an excuse.

I handed my teacher the note and was on my way back to my seat when she asked me what the paper was for. I told her and she held the paper up, in view of the whole class.

Imagine my embarrassment when I discovered I had given her a paper on which I had drawn some funny pictures with "teacher" written on it. Blushing and amid the snickers of my classmates, I brought her the correct paper.

Glass of Fashion Reflects Glass Buttons

by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—The glass of fashion--often it is glass buttons--for these trimmings in all the primary colors are one of the most favored adjuncts of the infatuated summer frock. They are trim and cool--for all their brilliance--and serve to emphasize color or to present color contrast without affecting the flat, straight outline.

Morning dresses have so long been following the simple line that if a woman appeared before the fashionable luncheon hour in ruffles and lace she would be marked as a novice in good form. This practice of tailored trimness is particularly commendable in hot weather for simplicity and coolness are closely associated.

Whether the material be washable silk, voile, linen, or dimity the same principle dominates.

All the collections of morning frocks bring out this truth. White backgrounds and white trimmings prevail. Plain colors are vivid and are set off only by a narrow belt, a little drawn work, fagoting or tucks, and white collars and cuffs of the most tailored type. The interesting feature of these collections is that, distinctness of effect is enhanced rather than diminished by the tailored treatment.

A practical model is the one we are showing here. Since it is developed in line it may need frequent pressing; but it will serve the cautious wearer for some time before it must be laundered. The background is tan printed in yellow, red, and black.

GOOPS!

A Daily Lesson in Manners for Children

BY GELETT BURGESS

(Copyright, 1924, By The Chicago Tribune)

TAKING YOUR NAP.

A little nap I often take, And sleep quite soundly till I wake.

I do not talk. I do not sing. Or call, or squirm, or anything. I lie and let my eyelids droop. So why don't you? Are you a Goop?

NOTE--If you know any Goop facts you would corrected, drop a note to Mr. Gelett Burgess, care of this paper, and perhaps he will draw a picture and write a curse about it.

Tan linen forms the cuffs which finish the short sleeves, and the same material is used in a strip down the front of the frock on which are set a row of large buttons in red glass. Red is the swade belt about the hips. Here the straight neck line offers an alternative to the tailored collar.

...the night was
...night.

Doesn't Show Much. Carpenter did not have much of a chance to show his new customers just how good he really is, and most of them left with the impression that he just looked good on the surface and that he was about as hard to get a line on as a fighter when his act is made up of shadow boxing, bag punching, and other nonsense.

Carpenter closed down as far as any more boxing is concerned. From now on the Frechman will take it easy, except for a slight limbering up exercise tomorrow, which will bring his preparatory work to a close.

Carpenter is on edge for the contest and while he is not under-estimating Gibbons in the least, he told us that he felt stronger than when he fought Dempsey and was quite sure that he would defeat the St. Paul boxer.

URUGUAY SOCCER MEN PUT YANKS OUT OF OLYMPICS

BY DONALD SKENE.

PARIS, May 29.—Playing some of the most brilliant soccer ever seen on a European field, Uruguay's wonder team eliminated the United States from the Olympic games of the football tournament with an easy victory of 2 goals to 0, at the Beersgare stadium today.

The enthusiastic crowd of 15,000, including a big delegation from the Latin-American colony and the diplomatic corps which went wild at the South American spectacle, were packed every available inch in the stadium.

The Uruguayans clinched the game in the first half, when they scored with a stonewall defense which held the Americans scoreless.

All Scores in First Half. The game was unmarred by any serious unsportsmanlike incident such as featured the previous appearances of the Americans in the Olympic contest, although the Uruguayans were not favorites and the Yankees were somewhat coolly received. The Yankees entered the field first, settling in light scattering of applause. The Uruguayans followed and received a thunderous ovation, led by the Latin-American crowd.

The United States kicked off. With the opening whistle Uruguay launched a whirlwind attack at the American goal making half a dozen shots at the goal in the first ten minutes of the play. Only the marvelous work of the American goal keeper Douglas prevented a score. After twelve minutes of play Andrade, the giant Uruguayan right half, was named assistant captain. He was named assistant captain because of his size and strength. He was named assistant captain because of his size and strength.

Three minutes later the fleet midfielder, righting, made a beautiful kick to center which Scarsone, right inside forward, turned into Uruguay's second goal. The Uruguayans continued to keep the play in the Americans' territory continually. In less than a minute before the half Uruguay's second goal, center forward dribbled the ball past the American back and shot Uruguay's third goal.

In the second half the American defense stiffened but slowed up somewhat although they were always on the defensive. O'Connor the American left back was booed by the crowd when he roughed Nayar in a battle for ball in a corner of the field. Later Stradan the Yank center forward received a nasty accidental kick in the kidneys from Uruguayans. The American continued although his back was bleeding from bad cuts which tore off his shirt.

UTERTITZ NAMED TO AID PURPLE GRIDIRON COACH. Irwin Utertiz of Oak Park, former assistant coach at the University of Michigan, was named assistant grid coach at Northwestern university, according to an announcement yesterday by Athletic Director Dana M. Evans.

Utertiz learned football under Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite at Oak Park in 1915, 1916, and 1917, and was one of the Purple Line players who performed when he coached the suburban high school team.

The athletic department also announced that Duke Dunne had been engaged as line coach and that Chuck Carney would be back in his old position as coach of ends. Henry Penfield will again coach the freshmen.

Doesn't Show Much. Carpenter did not have much of a chance to show his new customers just how good he really is, and most of them left with the impression that he just looked good on the surface and that he was about as hard to get a line on as a fighter when his act is made up of shadow boxing, bag punching, and other nonsense.

Carpenter closed down as far as any more boxing is concerned. From now on the Frechman will take it easy, except for a slight limbering up exercise tomorrow, which will bring his preparatory work to a close.

SMITTY—THE GUILTY ONE!

In the Wake of the News

MEMORIAL DAY. The lines are thin, the blue, the gray. As they come marching on this day, But beyond the vision of those dim days.

The ranks are filled with those that lie asleep. And as they totter down the street, How time has cut a deep retreat Into those ranks. But as they pass us in review, The spirit of their deeds is always new And we owe to them this land of free.

Does a College Education Pay? A college freshman came dashing madly down the street, holding aloft a big red lantern and shouting, "Hey, look what some darn fool left in front of a big hole down Main street."

Jvenile Department. Took my small son to the Riviera and after the picture was over, we had to wait for the orchestra leader to enter the pit. When he came from the side of the stage my son said, "Who is that man?" He's the conductor," I replied, and son piped, "Oh, are they going to play street-car?"

Dumbbell Pomes. I threw a stone into the air, It fell to earth I knew not where; But all at once I heard a fall, And then I knew just where it fell.

Dusting Off the Old Ones. Walter—Will you have a piece of pie? Customer (facetiously)—Is it composed of yachts and boats? Walter—No, it's blueberry.

Do You Remember Way Back When? The Hungry Five" played in the audience during the afternoon.—M. V. B.

CHICAGO YACHTS IN FIRST CONTESTS OF 1924 SEASON TODAY. Preliminary trials in the nation's greatest intercollegiate track and field meet will be held at University of Chicago today, beginning at 2 o'clock, when nearly 500 lads take the field to try for positions in the finals and semifinals of the national tournament, scheduled for tomorrow.

The meet, which has attracted a record entry from all parts of the country, is divided into two divisions—one for high schools and one for academies. In the former section, 175 institutions are represented, while sixteen academies have delegates in the meet.

This afternoon's program includes preliminaries in the pole vault, shot put, discus, javelin, broad jump, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, high hurdles, and low hurdles. In both academy and high school divisions.

The winning horse, also a four-year-old, has shown good form this season but until now has been considered only as belonging to the second division in his year. The conclusion of some sportsmen is that Epiphany has lost some of his brilliancy since last year.

STEVE DONOGHUE ON DEFIANCE IN ENGLISH DERBY. LONDON, May 29.—(By Associated Press.)—Steve Donoghue, who has ridden to victory in the last three Derbies, will have his leg up on J. R. Jones' Debut in the coming classic at Epsom Downs June 4.

For a time it was thought that he might ride Lord Woolworth's Tom Finch, the favorite, but the secretary to Jack Joel, who has the first call on Donoghue's services, said it was certain that Defiance would run. It is quite possible that Tom Finch may be ridden by the American jockey, George Archibald.

COOLIDGE FOR
U. S. KNOTTED
WORLD COU
"Renunciation" S in Blunt Address
BY JAMES O'DONNELL BEN
Washington, D. C., May 29.
The scene of the "renunciation" speech—made by President
Coolidge today was the nation's shrenunciation—the marmores at Arlington National cemetery.
Before an assemblage listen-hushed intently to the words clear and sharp from his lips, the President came out with an explanation for the world court.
The word "renunciation" was key word of his address.
"Our country," he said—and spoke the words he raised his the green hillsides white with rows of tiny headstones to the dead—"our country cannot ex-renunciation of the heroic soul past."
Declaration Is Blunt.
We, too, was his iteration, citizens of the republic and of the must make our renunciations, not wrap our thought in rich we projected it in blunt, homely saying:
"If we receive anything we re-render something. We may face the question candidly."
In the passage which is of the discourse he echoed Luther's "Here I Stand," and not echo the challenge of the speech which he, for good international justice, with cer-ditions. His suggestion had had my approval.

"On that I stand.
"I should not oppose other tions, but any material change would not probably receive sent of the many other nat-

Then, sharp and clear
note of renunciation:
"We cannot take a step of this kind without assumtain obligations. Here we receive anything we must something. We may as we question candidly, and if we ing to assume these new exchange for the benefits we secure to us let us say we not willing, let us say that accomplish nothing by takful or ambiguous position."
Must Bear Part of World's As Mr. Coolidge drew in sententious utterances came by firing. He did not raise or make gestures, but he and speak to them forth-managing partner, earning them as to his and the affairs. In these closing

We must meet these bur-come them or they will

"For my part I desire to meet them without

Not What Pays, but What
For his part, he believ-try would be safer in the than out of it, and he said:
"I feel confident that would make a greater Ad-new national spirit, a national life."
Here, again, was the speaking—and in straight in the eyes:
